Message from Inspector Andrew

This past month has been extremely busy, with some great work being conducted by officers across the area. This has included assisting with the execution of 2 warrants in multi-agency operations in regards to animal cruelty and welfare, resulting in a number of arrests and offenders being charged to court.

In the next few weeks we have the Royal Norfolk Show, come and join us in the Emergency Services village, I will be there on Thursday 28th June and PC Jim Squires will be there on both days should you wish to speak with him. The Beat Manager team will be attending and available should you wish to speak with them with any issues relevant to your particular area.

What is happening in your area

Message from your Beat Manager Pc Sansbury

“This month I have temporarily taken over the responsibilities for Poringland SNT and Loddon SNT. This is because PC David REEVE is now an Acting Sergeant in Diss. I’m sure like me, you will want to wish David all the very best luck in his new role - he was an amazing Beat Manager for Loddon SNT. I will do my best to assist you all, but please be patient with me whilst I balance the needs for both SNT areas.

We recently attended the Fair on the Yare, in Claxton, where we had the opportunity to spend a lot of time with members of the public, both young and old. The organisers estimated that well over a 1,200 people attended, and thankfully the weather held out. We gave out a lot of advice on scam and fraud offences, having worked really closely with the Norfolk Trading Standards. I think the kids enjoyed trying on our police hats and playing pretend police pursuits in our marked cars.
