Message from Inspector Andrew

After an extremely warm Summer, the weather has changed and the nights are starting to get dark earlier, so can I remind you all to check that all sheds/outbuildings are locked and to keep your property secure. It may be worth if you don't already to follow the '9 pm routine', which was recently publicised, which involves checking all windows/doors are shut and locked, and any sheds/outbuildings are locked and property secure.

October also sees some of the Norfolk Police Cadets taking part in their Duke of Edinburgh Bronze expedition, under the watchful eyes of our own PC Jim Squires. This involves Cadets from around the County including S Norfolk Cadets, who will complete a pre-planned hike and overnight camping. All the best to all who take part.

Message from your Engagement Officer

With the nights starting to draw in, we know that Halloween will soon be upon us.

Although reports of anti-social behaviour remain low on this evening, we still try to reduce individuals concerns and offer our 'do not disturb' poster.

These will be available from your local library or the front desk of police headquarters at Wymondham from the 17th October.

My details are - e-mail: squiresjr@norfolk.pnn.police.uk or call 01953 423773

What is happening in your area

Message from your Beat Manager Pc Sansbury

'Autumn is now coming into full swing, and with it comes colder and darker conditions, so please be careful on the roads. The end of October also brings the arrival of Halloween festivities. I will be once again dishing out 'Do Not Disturb' and 'Respect Others' Halloween posters – please contact me if you need some copies.

I will be shortly announcing where and when the next police street surgeries will be occurring – please come along on the day and let me know about concerns in your area.
