Loddon Lifelong Learners

SPRING 2027 COURSES

Life and Language in 18th and 19th Century Russia

Four-week course with Dr Jess Tipton

An overview of Russian history and Russo-British relations, the use of French and other languages in pre-revolutionary Russia, and an introduction to the Russian language.

Starts Monday 25 January 2027

The British Films of Alfred Hitchcock

Four-week course with Nigel Herwin

Explore how Hitchcock learnt his craft and became "The Master of Suspense" through a series of classic films made in Britain during the 1920s and 1930s. Find out how Hitchcock managed to manipulate cinema audiences!

Starts Monday 1 March 2027

Jubilee Hall, George Lane, Loddon, NR14 6NB

Monday afternoons, 2.00–4.00 pm

Each course costs £40.00. Payment can be made by BACS Sort Code 30-54-66 Account Number 26700462, referencing LLL and your surname or by cash or cheque at the first session.

For more information and to let us know if you would like to attend

Sharon: swsmith949@gmail.com | Alison: 01508 521976